(406) 646-1152 westyellowstonefoundation.org

The West Yellowstone Foundation's mission is to strengthen the sense of community and enhance the economic vitality in the West Yellowstone and Hebgen Lake Basin areas. The non-profit Foundation provides funding for charitable and philanthropic needs through permanent endowments, gifts, bequests, and grants. The Foundation raises and administers tax deductible, donated, charitable resources from individuals and organizations while meeting the donors' wishes.

Grant Focus Areas

- Arts & Culture
- Basic Human Needs
- Education
- Economic Development
- Natural resources
- Conservation
- Historic Preservation

GRANT PRIORITIES

- The Foundation prefers to make grants to organizations that are responsive to the changing needs of the community.
- Innovative solutions and preventive actions are welcomed.
- Partnerships and collaborations are highly encouraged.
- Other support, such as partial funding, volunteers, and in-kind gifts, that demonstrate community involvement are considered.
- Projects that impact the largest number of individuals possible, with a modest investment of funds are preferred.
- Program development and capacity building activities are eligible. Lower priority is given to general operating expenses, capital or equipment requests and ongoing program support.
- The Foundation expects that groups applying for funding be self-sustaining after 2-3 years. WYF does not support groups or projects indefinitely.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

To be eligible for a grant, an organization must be a non-profit and provide service to the residents within West Yellowstone and the Hebgen Lake Basin areas.

RESTRICTIONS

The W.Y. Foundation does not award grants for the following: religious organizations for direct religious activities, debt retirement, individuals (except scholarships), political organizations or campaigns, telephone solicitations, and organizations that as a substantial part of their purpose, influence legislation.

DEADLINE; The 10th of the month (January, April, July, October)

West Yellowstone Foundation grant applications can be submitted throughout the year. Grant proposals will be reviewed by the grant committee. Then the application will proceed with a recommendation for approval or denial to the full Board. Final approval must be obtained from the Board of Directors during their next regularly scheduled meeting. The West Yellowstone Foundation encourages clear and concise grant proposals that adhere to the attached Grant Application guidelines. Please contact the W.Y. Foundation with any questions regarding the grant application process.
